Very Heavy Rainfall.

Southern New York Experimenting a Big Flood.

CITIES PARTLY UNDER WATER.

Bridges Washed Away and Railroad Travel Almost Entirely Suspended. Business at a Standstill at a Number of Places.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Nearly three inches of rain has fallen here in twenty-four hours, and the water, increased by the streams above, has raised the Chemung river to the danger line. The lower parts of the city are under water, and much damage is apprehended.

The railroads are experiencing a great deal of trouble. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road is not running any trains, owing to the high water at Kanaw. The Erie is blocked by landslides and washouts at Addison and Hornellsville. There is also some trouble on that road at North Elmira. No trains have gone west or come in from that direction for twelve hours.

The Northern Central road has a bridge and a long piece of track washed out at Watkins, where the water from Watkins Glen comes down in destructive force.

Several bridges and a number of stairways were washed out of Watkins Glen.

The Addison and Pennsylvania road had a trestle washed out near Addison, and the road is blocked.

The Erie is blocked at Wellsville, where the storm has washed out the tracks, as well as those of the Bradford, Eldred and Cuba road and the Wellsville and Connersport line. Exhibitors are moving cattle and goods from the Interstate fair grounds here in anticipation of the flood.

At Canisteo.

CANISTEO, N. Y., Sept. 11.—The people of this town were aroused at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by an alarm which proved to be that of a flood. A continuous, hard rain had succeeded in raising Purdy and Bennett's creeks which overflowed their banks, and for the third time inside of two years. All the south and west portion of the village is a sea of water. Cellars are full, walks float, gardens covered and a general appearance of desolation prevails. No particular damage is anticipated, however, except to two or three individuals.

The Canisteo river which flows across the north end of the village is also over its banks, inundating that portion of the village and causing some of the inhabitants to move to the second stories of their houses. The Erie road is completely blocked. All kinds of business is at a standstill. Several bridges over the small creeks have been washed away. The neighboring city of Hornellsville is also flooded, and word comes from there that the water was never higher and considerable damage is expected. The towns below are also partly under water.

At 8 o'clock last night the rain began falling again, and should it continue throughout the night disastrous results are feared.

SITUATION AT ALBANY.

A Misplaced Switch Wrecks a Train. Strikers Returning to Work.

ALBANY, Sept. 11.—A misplaced switch at Lumber street in this city, sent the night boat express from the north on the Delaware and Hudson road crashing into a freight train last night. Very fortunately the train was going but slowly, it having stopped a few blocks beyond for some reason. No lives were lost, a few persons being thrown from their seats and bruised.

The switchman, Frank Hatch is a Knight of Labor, who resumed his position yesterday. He says he left his switch for a few minutes and it was tampered with. Both engines were badly smashed and the passenger engine was derailed.

John Reed, one of the train wreckers and who is supposed to have turned states evidence, was taken to Troy last night and locked up because it was intimated that a writ of habeas corpus had been issued. He says he was arrested on Saturday without a warrant and locked up in Superintendent Bissell's office. The road detectives say they will have the other two men soon. The strikers have applied for work in large numbers and many were taken back.

TWO IMPORTANT SECTIONS.

Provisions of Mr. Aldrich's Reciprocity Amendment to the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Mr. Aldrich's reciprocity amendment, as adopted by the senate, reads:

SECTION 2. That with a view to secure reciprocal trade with countries producing the following articles, and for this purpose, and after the first day of July, 1891, whenever and so often as the president shall be satisfied that the government of any country producing and exporting sugars, molasses, coffee, tea and hides, raw and uncurd, or any of such articles, imposes duties or other exactions upon the agricultural or other products of the United States, which, in view of the free introduction of such sugar, molasses, coffee, tea and hides into the United States he may deem to be reciprocity unequal and unreasonable, he shall have the power, and it shall be his duty to suspend, by proclamation to that effect, the provisions of this act relating to the free introduction of such sugars, molasses, coffee, tea and hides, the production of such country, for such time as he shall deem just, and in such case and during such time, suspension duties shall be levied, collected and paid upon sugar, molasses, coffee, tea and hides, the product of ore exported from such designated country as follows:

All sugars not above No. 13 Dutch standard in color shall pay duty on their polariscopic test as follows: All sugars not above No. 13 Dutch standard in color, all tank bottoms, cups of cane juice or of beef juice, melada, concentrated melada concrete and concentrated molasses, testing by the polariscopic test not above 75 degrees, 7-10 cent per pound; and for every additional degree or fraction of a degree shown by the polariscopic test, .02 cent per pound additional. All sugars above No. 13 Dutch standard in color shall be classified by the Dutch standard in color and pay duty as follows: All sugar above No. 13 and not above No. 16 Dutch standard of color, 1 1/2 cent per pound, and all sugar above No. 16 and not above No. 20 Dutch standard of color, 1 1/2 cent per pound; all sugars above No. 20 Dutch standard of color, 2 cents per pound; molasses testing above 56 degrees, 4 cents per gallon. Sugar drainings and sugar sweepings shall be subject to duty either as molasses or sugar, as the case may be, according to polariscopic test. On coffee, 3 cents per pound; on tea, 10 cents per pound; on hides, raw or uncurd, whether dry, salted or pickled, Angora goatskins, raw, without the wool, unmanufactured, asses' skins, raw or unmanufactured, and skins except sheepskins, with the wool on 1 1/2 cents per pound.

Highest Ever Paid for a Lecture.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Henry M. Stanley, African explorer and writer, is to lecture in the Academy of Music on Nov. 12, for the benefit of the Brooklyn Homeopathic Hospital. The sum he will receive for the lecture is $3,500. The Brooklyn lecture will be his second one after his arrival in November, the first being in New York. The prices of seats, it is said, will range from $3 to $5, and as the academy seats 2,210 persons it is thought that a good profit will accrue from the lecture. Over $8,000 can be received from the sale of seats. The arrangements for the lecture are under the direction of Camden C. Dike, Albert Ammermann and R. J. Kimball. The sums to be paid to Mr. Stanley are said to be the highest ever paid to any lecturer in the country.

Duties on Pork.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 11.—A delegation consisting of A. J. Aekhurst, of Swift & Company, E. F. Miles, of Armour & Company, of Chicago, and a number of Canadian pork packers and lumbermen, waited on the ministers of customs and finance yesterday in reference to the duties on pork. After the case had been presented the minister decided to allow the all-sides of pork in barrels after the ham and shoulders have been removed and running sixteen pieces and under to the barrel, to be admitted into Canada at one and one-half cents per pound instead of four cents as ruled by certain collectors.

Miners' and Mine Operators' Meeting.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 11.—A meeting of the adjourned conference of miners and operators of the of the region comprising the counties of Clearfield, Centre, Cambria, Huntingdon, Blair, Bedford, Indiana and Jefferson was held here yesterday. It was resolved to allow a committee from each side to endeavor to arrange a scale satisfactory to both. The joint committee is in session and it is stated that the difficulties have been amicably settled and no strike will occur.

Shower of Fish.

CAIRO, Ill., Sept. 11.—During a shower of rain a number of live fish fell in various parts of the city. They were all about four inches in length, of the sun, perch and buffalo species. They were stunned by contact with the earth, but many were revived by placing in water and are still alive. The largest number that fell in one place were picked up at the Big Four depot and numbered about one dozen.

Fancy Goods Store Burned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The large fancy goods store of Straus Brothers & Company, extending through the block from One Hundred and Twenty-fourth to One Hundred and Twenty-fifth streets west and Third avenue, was gutted by fire early yesterday morning. The loss is $70,000; insurance $100,000. It is believed that the watchman employed in the store was burned to death.

Horses Coming West.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 11.—Mr. Nelson's horses, Nelson, Medora, Red Hawk, Cal Good, Daisy Raffe and Artist will leave here Thursday in care of the American Express company for Bloomington, Ill., and thence through the American association circuit. The French syndicate has raised the offer for Nelson to $65,000, but Mr. Nelson declines to sell.

Cincinnati Collision.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11.—In a collision at the Cincinnati Northern railroad depot last night James Howard was instantly killed. The engineer and fireman jumped for their lives and escaped with but slight injuries.

Eight Buildings Burned.

DANCONSON, Pa., Sept. 11.—Fire occurred here yesterday evening which destroyed eight buildings and for a time menaced the destruction of the principal part of the town. Loss, $15,000.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 11.—The constitutional convention completed its organization yesterday by the election of minor officials. After the appointment of committee on rules and credentials the convention adjourned. The rules which governed the convention of 1850 were accepted pending the preparation of a new code.

Return of the Wheelbarrow Pedestrian.

MC CONNELLSVILLE, O., Sept. 11.—Harri-on Warner, the Oegenarian pedestrian who left here this summer to walk to Baltimore, Md., pushing a wheelbarrow, returned Tuesday. He made the trip from here to Baltimore, about 400 miles, in twenty-three days. He feels none the worse for his trip.

Strikers Still Rioting.

Critical Situation at Southampton, England.

A NUMBER OF MEN ARRESTED.

Troops Called Out, But They Cannot Check the Disorders—Business Throughout the Town Almost Paralyzed—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The striking dock laborers, sailors and firemen at Southampton still maintain a menacing attitude, and the authorities fear that there may be further rioting. Notwithstanding the fact that a large force of police from London and other places are at Southampton for the purpose of aiding the local authorities, further detachments of troops have been summoned to assist in putting down any overt demonstrations.

Some of the strikers have gone out in small boats to await the arrival of incoming steamers with the object of persuading their crews to join in the strike. The admiral has been asked to assist in preventing this move of the strikers. Eight men were arrested for taking part in the rioting. A mob gathered about the mayor's residence and made threatening demonstrations. The mayor telephoned for assistance, and a number of soldiers were dispatched in cabs to disperse the crowd.

Seventeen more arrests of strikers for resisting the authorities were then made. The mob tore down the placards containing the mayor's address, urging the strikers to remain at their homes. Business throughout the town is almost paralyzed. Before charging the crowd with bayonets the troops threatened several times to fire, but without making any impression.

Coming After Information.

BERLIN, Sept. 11.—Dr. Van Stephen, imperial director of posts and telegraphs, intends to visit the United States shortly for the purpose of studying the American postal telegraph system.

Banished to Siberia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—Four prominent officers of the Russian army, stationed at Helsinki, Finland, including a major general, have been banished to Siberia for theft of government money and other property.

Island Inundated.

VIENNA, Sept. 11.—The Island of Schmett, in the Danube, near Presburg, has been inundated by the rise of the river.

Recovering Drowned Bodies.

DRESDEN, Sept. 11.—Twenty-one corpses of persons drowned during the floods have been found in the Elbe.

DID RIGHT TO KILL HIS WIFE.

That is the Opinion of an Aged German Uxoricide at Dayton, O.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 11.—Henry Kellner, a German, aged 65 years, shot and killed his wife Wednesday morning. It is a clear case of deliberate murder, with extenuating circumstances. Mrs. Kellner was 42 years of age, and there had been trouble that caused a separation and proceedings for divorce, and Kellner was driven from home.

He says that growing desperate over his unhappy surroundings he went to his wife's home, intending to kill her and her paramour, who is about her age, and is a well known citizen. The man happened not to be in, so Kellner could only carry out half of his murderous program. He shot his wife twice and she died an hour later. Kellner gave himself up and says he believes he did right.

Murder and Robbery.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Sept. 11.—Joseph Fisher, aged 74, a wealthy and reputable farmer of Harrison county, went to Mauckport Monday afternoon to pay a debt of $100. The man he owed the money was absent from the town, and Mr. Fisher started home late in the evening with the money in his pocket. He was found dead on the highway near his home Tuesday morning, his skull crushed and the money gone. He had been murdered and robbed. There is intense excitement, but no clew to the murderer.

Robbed and Thrown from a Train.

CANTON, O., Sept. 11.—William Stewart, of Canton, and a man named Reeves, of Upper Sandusky, were stealing a ride in a Fort Wayne railroad freight car last night. When the train reached Loudonville four tramps entered the car, assaulted and robbed Stewart and Reeves and threw them from the train which was running twenty miles an hour. Stewart was terribly injured. Reeves has not been found, and it is believed he was killed. The tramps escaped.

Brought His Dead Body Back.

GOSHEN, Ind., Sept. 11.—Fred Kaufman, an old engineer on the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan road, who has been running on the Atlantic and Pacific line, was instantly killed at Albuquerque, N. M., last Friday. The engine ran through an open switch and turned over on its side, and Kaufman, falling beneath the tank, was crushed to death. Deceased had relatives in Wabash county. The body was brought to this place and buried yesterday.

Massachusetts Prohibitionists.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 11.—The Prohibition convention yesterday nominated Dr. Blockner for governor; George Keampton, of Sharon, for lieutenant governor; George D. Crittenden, of Buckland, secretary of state; Walcott Hamlin, of Amherst, attorney general; William H. Gleason, of Boston, treasurer and receiver general; Augustus R. Smith, of Lee, auditor.

AN OLD TIME LEGACY.

Georgians Trying to Find Out What to Do With It.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 11.—The state school commissioner and the attorney general were in consultation Tuesday in regard to securing for the purposes of negro education in this state a sum of money that has lain in the Bank of England for many years. It is a legacy, the history of which is very singular.

Archibald McLean, a Scotchman, was a prosperous planter in Chatham early in the present century. His estate was known as Gowrie, and on it he had a large number of slaves. His family in Scotland was strongly opposed to slavery. After his death and the death of his son and heir a certain interest in the estate went to his brother, John McLean. John McLean died at Glasgow July 9, 1830, leaving a will that directed the application of half his interest in his deceased brother's Georgia estate to the education of the negro slaves thereon or of their offspring as soon as the laws of Georgia should permit the education of the slave population.

Four prominent Savannah merchants were named as the trustees under the will, but declined the trust on the ground that the laws of Georgia prohibited the education of slaves and the bequest was therefore void. The sum involved was a little over $355. The heirs, in view of the legal condition of the legacy in Georgia, attempted to secure the money, but the courts decided against them. Accordingly the money has been in charge of the Bank of England, and William Lloyd Garrison was notified of the facts to the end that when circumstances might arise under which the money could be applied according to be terms to the will, steps could be taken for securing possession of it.

After the emancipation of all slaves in this country a son of Mr. Garrison, who had found among his father's papers a memorandum on the matter, called the attention of the Georgia authorities to the legacy. While the Bank of England is anxious to pay over the money to whoever may be legally entitled to receive it, a letter to that effect having just been received by the school commissioners of Georgia, the difficulty is that the negroes of the Gowrie plantation have been scattered by the war, and there is no way of finding their heirs. Now the question is whether the bequest, which has been bearing interest since 1836, can be secured and devoted to the general education of the negroes.

POWDERLY AT SYRACUSE.

He Addresses Two Thousand People at the Alhambra Rink.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Two thousand people went to the Alhambra rink last night to listen to an address by General Master Workman Powderly. The mayor presided at the meeting. Mr. Powderly's address was largely devoted to an exposition of the principles underlying the organization of the Knights of Labor, hostility to land monopoly, the tariff reform, government ownership of railroads, the prevention of child labor, equal pay for both sexes, and arbitration between employer and employee.

In speaking of the strike on the Central he said that it would not cease to make itself felt until it had been written up on statute books putting organized labor on an equal footing with organized capital.

With regards to the recent attempts to wreck Central trains, he asked for a suspension of public judgment until the truth should be brought out in the courts, expressing the utmost confidence that the responsibility for them would be traced, not to the Knights of Labor, but to the "thieves and thugs" hired by the railroad company under the name of Pinkerton detectives.

The following reference was made to Chauncey M. Depew: "Mr. Depew arrived in this country yesterday. I hope that he will have the good sense to speak to the men in the old time spirit. He is on record as saying that the settlement of labor questions lies in arbitration. We will see now whether he is prepared to square his action with his words."

An admission fee was charged to the meeting and the money will go to the strikers.

WAR IN DAHOMEY.

Tales of Atrocious Cruelty Reaches Us From Africa—May Not Be True.

MARSEILLES, Sept. 11.—The steamer Taurus has arrived with marines and soldiers from Dahomey. The men are in a pitiable condition, their health having been completely shattered by the hardships they have endured. The steamer brings details of the defeat of Egbas by the Dahomians.

The victors, it appears, destroyed the city villages and took 3,000 prisoners. The Dahomians showed no mercy and were guilty of the most inhuman acts of cruelty.

All the infants that were captured in the villages were killed, many of them being burned alive. Egbas and 20,000 of his followers fled to the Catholic mission at Abbeokuta.

King Behanzin afterward advanced into the interior and captured 2,000 more prisoners. One thousand women, who were made prisoners, were put to death.

A Quiet Wedding.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—The wedding of ex-president Andrew Dickson White, of Cornell university, and Miss Helen Magill, took place at Swarthmore at 11:30 o'clock yesterday. It was the wish of the contracting parties to have the affair a very quiet one. The Friends' ceremony was used.

Sent Up for Forty Years.

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill., Sept. 11.—Edward Caldwell, colored, was sentenced yesterday to forty years imprisonment in the penitentiary for the murder of George Conn, colored.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1890.

Notice to the Democrats of Mason County.

There will be a mass convention held at Maysville court house Saturday, Sept. 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for choosing delegates to the Congressional convention which meets at Catlettsburg, Sept. 16th.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH,
Chairman Executive Committee.

The new constitution will, of course, be submitted to the voters for ratification, and it should be made as clear and concise as possible. It ought not take the convention such a very great while to get through with the business.

If the money that has been taken out of Maysville and invested elsewhere in the past year had been invested here at home in manufacturing enterprises the place would have been experiencing a nice healthy boom just about this time. You can't build your own city up by investing elsewhere.

SOLITARY and alone of the New England States, Maine sustains the Republican cause. Rhode Island is now in the Democratic field, and Vermont showed phenomenal Democratic gains. And the result in Maine is not so bad after all, as the Democrats increased their representation in the Legislature.

Is it Salary and Fees?

That each Commonwealth's Attorney shall receive annually a salary of $2,500, payable monthly out of the Treasury, which shall be in lieu of all other compensation by the Commonwealth.

The above is the section of the new law giving a salary to the Commonwealth's Attorneys of the State, which went into effect July 1, 1890. It is construed by some that the attorneys are still entitled to the fees in all cases, as the new law only applied to the compensation of the Commonwealth which was $500 per annum under the old law. It looks like a new law entirely, and we think it repeals all others on the subject.—Frankfort Argus.

State School Tax.

Hon. A. L. Peterman, until recently a prominent candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is out in an interview in which he says he hopes the Constitutional convention will make no increase in the per capita paid by the State for school purposes. His theory, founded upon experience, is that Kentucky as a State already pays too much for public schools; that by so doing it furnishes each district with enough money to run a sort of school, and just enough to prevent the respective districts from raising for school purposes by special local tax the amounts they should. He, in other words, wants each school district to raise more money for itself, and to stop depending on the pittance received from the State to educate their children. He says that it works on the same principle that if somebody pays for B's education and A pays for his own that A will get the most good out of it. He says that Massachusetts, with a less per capita for public schools, has immeasurably better schools than Kentucky, because her school money is raised by districts. Texas' per capita is twice as large as Kentucky's and yet her schools are not nearly so good.

Undoubtedly Kentucky as a State has done her whole duty on the public school question. What is needed now is for the rest of the counties to follow the example set by Mason and vote a local tax in aid of the schools.

The Southern Flag.

Editor Bulletin: Would it not be in better taste, all things considered, were the Southern people to leave out the Confederate flag when they have public gatherings of any kind?

This flag has had its day, and should now be a thing of the past, as its use on such occasions only serves to perpetuate bitter feelings and memories between the sections. It would show wonderful good sense in the people of the South if they would for all time cease to make a display of this flag, and besides, it would give the people of the North a better opinion of the South's repeated asseverations of affection and loyalty not only to the stars and stripes, but also to the government under which they live. It would redound vastly to the advantage of the Southern people, too, if they would bring themselves to look at this matter in its true light, as such things only serve as handles for extremists to use against them, and gives such measures as the Force bill a semblance of justice and necessity.

They should also remember that as we have only one, and a common country, so there is, or should be at least, only one flag—the stars and stripes—and that if they desire the Northern people to forget the past, in which the Confederate flag played its part, it behooves them, in all modesty and good sense, to relegate this emblem of a bitter past to a glorious obscurity.

Bill Nye on the Newspaper Puff.

The newspaper puff is something that makes men feel bad if they don't get it. The groundwork of an ordinary newspaper puff consists of moral character and a good bank account. Writing newspaper puffs is like mixing sherry cobbblers and mint juleps all through the summer months for customers and quenching your own thirst with rain water. Sometimes a man is looking for a puff and don't get it, then he says the paper is going down hill, and that it is in the hands of monopoly, and he would stop subscribing if he did not have to pay his bill first. Writing a newspaper puff is like taking a photograph of a homely baby. If the photograph does not represent the child with wings and halos and harps, it shows that the artist does not understand his business—if the puff does not stand out like a bold and fearless exponent of truth and morality, it shows the puffer doesn't understand human nature. It is more fun to see a man read a puff of himself than to see a man slip on an orange peel. The narrow-minded man reads it over seven or eight times, and then goes around to the different places where the paper is taken and steals what he can. The kind-hearted family man goes home and reads it to his wife and then pays up his bill on the paper. The successful business man who advertises and makes money starts immediately to find the newspaper man and speaks a word of grateful acknowledgment and encouragement. Then the two men start out of the sanctum and walk thoughtfully down the street together, and the successful business man takes sugar in his, and they both eat a clove or two, and life is sweeter, and peace settles down like a turtle dove in our hearts, and after awhile lampposts get more plentiful and everybody seems more or less intoxicated, but the hearts of those two men are filled with nameless joy, because they know when to stop and not make themselves ridiculous.

For the Farmer.

Last month's receipts of live stock at Chicago amounted to 294,443 cattle, 21,939 calves, 574,207 hogs, 185,174 sheep, and 8,081 horses; against 297,276 cattle, 19,007 calves, 237,625 hogs, 174,366 sheep, and 5,272 horses for August, 1889. This is a decrease of 2,843 cattle and an increase of 2,932 calves, 236,581 hogs, 10,808 sheep, and 2,809 horses.

The Georgetown Times says: 'W. Z. Thomson is trying a new department in curing tobacco, called the 'Snow' process. A close building 16x20 feet and basement for flues is used, patent sticks with short wires crossing them, and tier poles adjusted by windlass. The tobacco leaves are pulled from the growing stalk as each leaf approaches maturity, and 45 of them are strung on each stick and cured by artificial heat. The first cure of sand leaves, flyings and trash has been completed, and the party from Virginia in charge pronounces it a perfect success. The sand leaves (that are never saved under the ordinary method of handling) he estimates worth from $6 to $8, and the best of trash from $5 to $7.50. The second cure of the same kind is now going on, and in a few days a cure of lugs and leaf will be made.'

The Constitution-Makers

There was not much done in the Constitutional Convention yesterday.

The convention concluded a Reading Clerk was needed, and Captain James E. Stone was elected to fill the position. He is one of the men defeated for Secretary.

A committee was drawn to investigate the contested election case of McChord versus Lewis from Washington County. This committee is composed of C. F. Burnham, Mercer; Judge Whittaker, Mason; S. J. Pugh, Lewis; F. A. Hopkins, Floyd; W. H. Miller, Breckinridge; J. F. Funk, Louisville; G. H. Petrie, Todd; E. J. McDermott, Louisville; J. Proctor Knott, Marion.

The following committee on Rules was appointed: Henry D. McHenry, Chairman; Bennett H. Young, L. T. Moore, T. F. Burnham, Judge Rodes McElroy, T. H. Hines, W. E. Goebel, I. N. Spalding, Mr. Montgomery, W. H. Miller and A. J. Auxier.

The convention adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, when, by prearrangement, an adjournment will be had till next Monday.

Here and There.

Misses Daisy and Bettie Hubbard are visiting at Lewisburg.

Mr. Ed. Hubbard is spending a few days near Manchester.

Miss Fannie Davis is visiting Miss Ida Bloomfield, of Winchester.

Mrs. Charles B. Poyntz left yesterday on a trip to New York and other points in the East.

Mrs. P. Brannon left this morning for Covington to join her husband, who is employed at the Kentucky Central shops at that place. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Winnie Moore.

Is the result of the Maine election an endorsement of Reed's despotism or Blaine's free trade "reciprocity" views?

Those Charges Against Rev. Mr. Bickley.

Mention was made recently of the sensational charges preferred against Rev. F. T. D. Bickley, pastor of the Main Street M. E. Church at Covington. A committee consisting of Rev. A. Boreing, Presiding Elder of this district, and Revs. Robinson, Garrett, Sutton, College, Polard and Fitzgerald, is investigating the matter this week.

The Covington Commonwealth says: "The first witness called was Miss Lizzie Martin, who testified that at midnight on May 5, 1890, Brother Bickley called at her home and insisted that she should get out of bed and see him. She refused, until he insisted she did so, and got up. It had been raining and was chilly. Mr. Bickley began to scold and then to abuse her for talking so much. He kept that up until almost 1 o'clock, when she said she had to go in the house, as her sister was in the next room sick with consumption; but he said if she went in the room he would follow her. She attempted to leave him, but he held the door so she could not shut it, and compelled her to listen to him. He told her she was under charges. On the 29th of July he said she had to take a letter of dismissal from the church or he would prefer charges against her. He did then deliver to her an insulting letter of dismissal.

"Miss Lydia Luken said that she and her girls, who were employed by her, saw Brother Bickley go into Mrs. Freeman's for several months almost every day, and sometimes three and four times a day, that the community was talking about his visits, and that Mr. Bickley came to her at the oyster supper in February, 1890, and asked her about it and she told him how the people were talking. That in July he told her she would have to take her letter of dismissal. She refused and said she would not, as she had done nothing to merit such treatment, but he handed her a letter of dismissal.

"Miss Walker testified to having seen Mr. Bickley go to Mrs. Freeman's in February and March daily, and the people were talking about it."

Such is the testimony the first evening of the trial. The investigation is still in progress.

The Railways.

China's solitary railroad is eighty-one miles long, and cost $9,000 a mile. It uses American locomotives.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the month of August show an increase of $87,485.92, as compared with those for the corresponding month of last year. The figures are:

1890	$726,380.06

Quiet Ways are Best.

'Tis better far to join the throng
That do their duty right along;
Reluctant they to raise a fuss,
Or make themselves ridiculous.
Calm and serene in heart and nerve,
Their strength is always in reserve,
And nobly stands each test;
And every day and all about,
By scenes within and scenes without,
We can discern, with ne'er a doubt,
That quiet ways are best.

Cork Sole Turned Shoes

Are as flexible and dainty as the finest turn, and are the easiest walking shoe made, the cork acting as a cushion to the foot. The cork being secured in a pocket, thus forming a part of the shoe, it is impossible for it to work loose or break up. They are also the most healthful shoe, as CORK IS A NON-CONDUCTOR OF HEAT AND MOISTURE. It prevents the warmth of the bottom of the foot from radiating and escaping in cold weather, and in warm weather it prevents the heat from the pavements from penetrating the foot.

LADIES wearing our Cork Soled Turned Shoes needn't fear cold, hot, damp or rough walks. They are as flexible and dainty a shoe as the lightest turned shoe made. Come and see them; they are a thing of beauty and comfort. Come and see, also, the largest retail stock of Boots and Shoes in the State. Selling at 25 per cent. less than anybody else sells them.

Captain Heflin is disgusted, and says the jail ought to be thrown open and the court house closed. He says the refusal to prosecute simply encourages the boy to commit greater offenses, and also tends to lead others astray.

I think it cannot be excelled, and cheerfully recommend it." In 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

THE FORSYTH CASE.

Particulars of the Shooting As Brought Out at the Examining Trial.

Price, the Accused, Required to Give Bond to Answer the Charge at Next Circuit Court.

The examining trial of "Boley" Price, on the charge of shooting and wounding Joe Forsyth during the Maysville fair, came off yesterday afternoon before Judge Phister.

The Commonwealth was represented by County Attorney Newell, while Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, Mr. A. A. Wadsworth and Mr. John L. Whitaker appeared for defendant. Mr. Forsyth is still suffering from the dangerous wound, but is able to go about and was present at the trial. He was the first witness and said:

"I have been living at Millersburg some time. Am Deputy Sheriff of Bourbon County—have been so for two years. I was at the Maysville fair and there saw Mr. Price for the first time. He was on the amphitheater. He came up the steps, and George Means was with him. They were talking. I was talking to Mr. Redmond. Price walked off to one side. I told Mr. Means that I did not want any further difficulty. Mr. Price had a pistol and said he would shoot the s—n of a b—h." He fired almost immediately, and the shot took effect in my right breast near the nipple. Price took a post after the first shot. He fired three times."

On cross-examination by Mr. Wadsworth, witness said: "I have been in Bourbon County two years. I had been living before in Texas and at Baltimore. I spent about one year in Baltimore, one year in Texas, nearly fifteen years in New Mexico and one year in Kansas. I have had some difficulties in my time, have been in a number where there was shooting and have been shot a number of times."

"The shooting at the fair grounds occurred on Thursday. I came down Tuesday before. I had this pistol with me. It was loaded. Had six cartridges that I sent to Lexington for while here. I first saw Price about 5 o'clock—about five minutes after my difficulty with Mr. Means. Means and myself were at the head of the steps when we had the difficulty. I struck Means with my pistol. He was coming at me with a knife. We got to talking about some horses and Means struck me and then drew his knife. There were no ladies there. I had not spoken to any ladies or insulted them. When Price and Means came up I told Means I did not want to have further trouble with him. Price fired before I had spoken to him. After I was shot I could not see very well. I took my pistol from my right hand and fired at him with my left. We parted when the shooting commenced. Did not hear Price say: 'George, go away—don't have trouble.' I did not speak to him or shoot at him before he fired at me. I had five loads in my pistol. I carry it that way. Did not shoot at Means. Fired both times at Price."

Re-direct—I never shot at a man I had not seen before, nor did I ever get behind a post to shoot at any one.

Dr. Owens testified as to the wound. There may be secondary hemorrhage yet that may result fatally. The chances are Forsyth will recover, but not entirely.

Constable James Redmond testified that he was sent for to arrest a man who had struck Mr. Means. He went up the steps. Forsyth was walking up and down the promenade, talking to himself. I told him I wanted to see him. He came over to me. Just then Means came running up with Price. Means said: "There he is." Price then came up to a post, and said something to Forsyth about shooting him. Forsyth stepped back and said shoot. Price got behind the post. I raised my arm and tried to stop Price, but he drew his pistol. Each had his pistol up and I then stepped aside. There were four shots. I could not say who fired first. Both Means and Price said something before the shooting, calling Forsyth some name.

G. W. Pollitt went up the steps with Mr. Redmond. Means came up then with his head bleeding and said: "That's the man I want and I'm going to have him," Forsyth said "keep back;" that he was "a U. S. Marshal and would shoot some of them if they did not keep back."

Price, the accused, was sworn, and said: I am twenty-five years old. Was at the fair grounds, staying at Mr. Davis' booth. Was coming out of the booth door and met Means. He had blood all over his head, and said a man up there had insulted his cousin and hit him on the head. He asked me for a pistol, but I told him I didn't have any. He then went up the steps and I went to keep him out of trouble. I said to him: "George, don't have any trouble; there are too many women around." Forsyth said: "You s—n of a b—h, you want some of it," and began to draw his pistol. He fired, George ran and I jumped behind the post. I then drew my pistol and fired twice.

George Means: I was at the fair grounds on the promenade with my cousin, Miss Means, and a Miss Kearns I invited them to come home with me and attend the fair next day. They declined and said they intended taking the Russell accommodation that was about due. They were about leaving when some man said: [The remark is not fit for publication.—Editor]. I struck him, some man ran between us and then the fellow hit me with his pistol. I went down and tried to get a pistol, but failed. I went back up after my coat and hat, and didn't expect a fuss. Price said: "Don't have any trouble." Forsyth said: "Maybe you want some of it, you s—n of a b—h." He then shot. Price got behind a post and shot back. Forsyth was twenty or thirty feet away. I left when the shooting commenced.

On cross-examination, witness said he could not identify the man he struck. He would not say positively the man he struck was the man who insulted the ladies. But he thought so. Witness admitted also that he had been drinking.

There was other testimony, but it did not differ much from what is given above. The accused was held for further trial in the Circuit Court. His bond was fixed at $500, which he gave with his father as surety.

SAYS the Lexington Transcript: "Father Geo. C. Beeler, formerly Principal of St. Paul's Parochial School in this city, is accomplishing much good work in his present position of Assistant Pastor of the Maysville Parish. He has made himself quite popular with and is well beloved by his people, who cannot but admire his pleasant, genial ways and indomitable energy in advancing the cause of education, and placing them on a higher moral plane."

THE Republicans of Brown County have nominated the following ticket: Commissioner, Frank W. Thompson; Probate Judge, I. C. Yates; Prosecuting Attorney, W. D. Young; Sheriff, E. S. Moorehead; Clerk, Albert Boswell, of Aberdeen; Infirmary Director, Sam Culter; Coroner, Jacob Gross. The usual Democratic majority in Brown is slightly over 1,000. The following Executive Committee was named for the ensuing campaign: Frank W. Dunham, John Rhodes, Chas. Thompson, J. D. Gardner, Thos. Buchanan, Jr.

THE Bowling Green Daily Times says: "Smith & Potter, the real estate men, have closed a trade for Mr. Albert Mitchell by which the building occupied by the Pearl saloon and Nelson's barber shop on Frozen Row, was transferred to Messrs. Worthington & Taylor. They will be given possession October 1st. and as soon as the present leases expire, will open a first-class fancy grocery unlike anything in the city."

The purchasers referred to are Mr. Vach Worthington, of Minerva, and Mr. John Taylor, who married Miss Julia Worthington.

MINER'S MAXIMS

There's nothing wonderful in

Selling good shoes at a high price;

Anybody can do that.

The wonder is, where good shoes are sold

At low prices.

That's MINER'S specialty.

Now, what in the world would we be advertising for, if all we had to offer was good shoes at an extra price? You've heard about the crazy man on the tower? He grabbed a stranger and said: "Let's jump down and make ourselves famous." "Pooh!" said the ready-witted stranger, "any man could jump down; let's go down and jump up."

We're not crazy.

Not crazy enough, at least, to think that you'd jump at an offer of shoes from us, when you could do just as well elsewhere. We would not expect to win your trade by selling good shoes at a big price, and we wouldn't waste money advertising that fact. Our specialty is a GOOD shoe at a LOW price.

That's where we stand alone.

The fact we want to "ding" into everybody's mind is that good shoes at MINER'S cost no more than poor shoes, such as MINER don't keep—don't keep them because they won't spoil the record:

September Crop Report

Latest Information from the Agricultural Department.

CROPS ARE GREATLY INJURED.

Drouth Causes the Lowest Average in Corn Since 1881—Disappointment in the Yield of Winter Wheat—Other Dispatches from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The National crop report for September shows that the injury to the corn reported last month was intensified by continuance of drouth in August until rains came to its rescue, but too late for full recovery. The average is 70 against 73 per cent. since 1881. It is the lowest average since 1881.

The returns of winter wheat at the time of harvesting are less favorable than those of the 1st of July. So far as threshing has progressed the results are generally disappointing. The July average was 67.2, the present 73.5. The general average of spring wheat has also been reduced from 83.2 to 79.8. The average for wheat of both kinds is 75.5. In 1888 the September average for wheat was 77. It was 73 in 1881.

The yields of spring wheat is unusually variable in the Dakotas, ranging from high yields to five bushels and less per acre. The progress of threshing will develop the extent of these differences.

On the coast, from New Jersey to Maryland, and in North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas and Missouri, as also in northern New England and Florida, there is improvement in corn since Aug. 1.

In Michigan, Wisconsin, and Indiana, and in Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas, the condition is unchanged. A decline has occurred in New York, Ohio, Illinois, and in all the northwestern states and some others of less importance. The crop is late in the eastern states, requiring maturing weather through September. It is also late and variable in development in New York and Pennsylvania.

The Atlantic coast states return relative high conditions impaired locally by the effects of midsummer drouths and latter storms. In Tennessee and Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas the drouth was more or less severe from the 20th of June. The record shows the crop was maturing and ripe before rains came. The Ohio valley and the Missouri valley report protracted drouth and low condition.

While the rains of the last two weeks of August have been beneficial nearly everywhere they have not always restored the losses of the first half of the month. In the bottom lands where growth was maintained, the recent rainfall will make a good crop, while the drier upland were beyond recovery. The lowest condition is in Kansas, though some of the eastern counties make good return. The Dakotas and Nebraska are little higher. The crop is late and will require as much time to mature in the latitude of 40 degrees as for the earlier varieties grown on the line of 42 degrees.

Rye yields less than was expected, as the condition as reported is reduced to 85.4.

The September condition of oats is the lowest ever reported, having fallen from 70.1 in August to 64.4. The rate of yield will be the smallest in twenty years.

The condition of barley is not very seriously lowered, from 82.8 to 78.6. Buckwheat has fully maintained its August condition, the average being 90.5 against 90.1.

The figures for potatoes have fallen since Aug. 1, from 77.3 to 65.7, the lowest average ever reported, that of 1867, being 77.

Tobacco has improved materially during the month, the average being 82.4, much better than in the August report, but lower than July condition. The reported percentage for fattening swine is 97 per cent., and their condition 93.7.

Senate and House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—In the senate yesterday concluding speeches on the tariff bill were made by Senators Hoar, Hiseock, Turpie, Vest, Vance, Gibson, and Jones of Nevada. At 5:20 a vote was taken and the bill was passed, 40 to 29, a strict party vote. Mr. East is being the only senator who was recorded on the measure either by vote or by pair.

The house spent the entire day filibustering on the question of approving the journal, the object of the obstructionists to prevent consideration of the Langston-Venable election case.

A New Line of Steamers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Robert W. Turner, United States consul at Cadiz, Spain, has informed the state department of the establishment of a line of steamers between Cadiz and New York. The steamers sail under the Portuguese flags, carry freight and passengers, and are registered at from 1,300 to 2,000 tons. The steamers will sail every forty days.

NATIONAL BANK ROBBED.

Two Talked to the Teller and Book Keeper, the Third Got the Swag.

DETROIT, Sept. 11.—A special to The News from Bay City says: A few minutes before noon yesterday three men entered the Second National bank, and two of them went to the teller and book keeper and engaged them in conversation about banking business.

The third slipped around to the book-keeper's desk and stole a package of bills amounting to $5,000, which was ready for shipment.

After the departure of the trio the robbery was discovered, and the police notified immediately, but they have not yet captured the robbers.

The Second National bank is located on the most prominent corner in the city.

Tenth District of Indiana.

MONROE, Ind., Sept. 11.—David H. Patton, of Newton county, was nominated for congress here yesterday by the Democrats of the Tenth congressional district.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

Delegates to the State Convention Nominate a Complete Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 11.—Chairman Michener, of the state central committee, called the Republican state convention to order yesterday. Nearly all of the 1,320 delegates were present. Hon. R. W. Thompson, ex-secretary of the navy, was chosen permanent chairman.

The platform denounces trusts and combines; champion's cheaper transportation; endorses Governor Hovey's administration; demands that the benevolent institutions be placed above the level of party politics; denounces mobs; deprecates the influence of the saloon in politics; denounces as unpatriotic the condemnation of judges of courts by party conventions; opposes any increase in taxes, condemns free trade and indorses the administration of President Harrison. It was adopted with cheers.

A resolution endorsing Speaker Reed was read and greeted with loud cheers. A resolution was adopted ordering the secretary of the convention to send a congratulatory telegram to Thomas B. Reed, "formerly of Maine, but now of the United States."

The ticket nominated is as follows: Secretary of state, Milton Truesler, of Fayette county, auditor of state, Col. I. N. Walker, of Marion; treasurer of state, George W. SMOTHERED IN A BOX.

Shocking Treatment of His Children by a Mexican Indian.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 11.—News just reached here of a horrible accident which occurred ten miles below Paso del Norte, Mex., Sunday last. An Indian, living some miles down the river, left home on business Saturday evening, but before leaving he put his two children, a girl and a boy, between the ages of 4 and 5 years, in a large box, and nailed down the lid to prevent the children from getting into the orchard and eating the fruit during his absence.

The father did not return home until Sunday evening and on opening the box he found the boy lying dead in the bottom and the girl in a dying condition. The suffocating closeness of their prison, combined with hunger and thirst, had done its work. Frightened over the result of his brutal carelessness, the father endeavored to exonerate himself by concocting several inconsistent stories, but was quickly arrested by the authorities. It was the intention of the Indian to return to the children Saturday night, but was delayed.

A Peculiar Accident.

BUFFALO, Sept. 11.—A peculiar accident occurred yesterday at the corner of Broadway and Wat-on streets, where a new building is in process of erection. Anthony schneegold who was at work on the third floor, lost his footing and fell. He struck upon the head and shoulders of Mrs. Matthews, of No. 319 Watson street, who was passing and then rebounded to the pavement. His hip was fractured, but the break in his fall undoubtedly saved his life. Mrs. Matthews sustained bruises about the body and a sprained ankle.

Athletics' Future.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A Philadelphia special to The Sun says that the future of the Athletic club will be decided during the next twenty-four hours. Manager Barnie, of the Baltimore Association club, said that while the American Association will not pay the players, there are parties who will. He also said that the Athletic club would not be allowed to drop out of existence or be absorbed by the Players' League.

May Result in Murder.

CHARLESTON, Ind., Sept. 11.—Henry Smith is lying at the point of death in this city, resulting from a blow on the head from a bottle in the hands of Henry Warren, the only saloon keeper in this town. The brawl occurred during the fair, a week ago, but Smith's injury was not then considered dangerous.

Glandered Mules Killed.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 11.—State Veterinarian Knowles killed two mules belonging to George Stout, a farmer living nine miles south of this city. The mules had been afflicted with glanders for several months, and their cases were very clearly traced to the Sullivan county epidemic.

Eight Men Probably Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—Six of the crew of twenty of the poaching sealing schooner C. H. White were brought to this city by the steamship Kartuck from Siberia. While in the Russian waters eight men from the schooner were sent to hunt seal. A fog came up and the track of the schooner was lost. After rowing about for two days two boats reached Copper island and surrendered to the Russian officials. Nothing has been heard of the other men and it is feared they were lost.

Convict Confesses to Murder.

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 11.—Tom Harris, a three-year convict in the penitentiary, sentenced for burglary, hanged himself to a bar in his cell yesterday, but was found before life was extinct. On his pillow in the cell was found a confession that he was the murderer of the McCombs family in Minnesota a few years ago. Harris is only 16 years old, and is discouraged with his life. The penitentiary officials are reticent about the case.
